19.—Funeral services over the remains of Patriarch Philiman C. Merrill were held Sunday, the 18th in the Layton meeting house, and interment was made in the Sofford-Layton cemetery. The large meetinghouse was crowded to overflowing. The Layton choir furnished appropriate music. The speakers were among those who knew him longest and best, some as far back as the days of Nauvoo. Elder John Morris, counselor to Bishop Wilkes of the Layton ward, presided, and was one of the speakers. Patriarch Alma H. Bennett, who presides over the little branch where the deceased lived and died, Patriarch Platt, Elder Alonzo Bingham, Sister Elizabeth Layton, Patriarch Samuel Claridge and the stake presidency were the other speakers. All eulogized the integrity and faithfulness of the deceased, and recounted interest-ing episodes in his eventful history, including the stirring scenes in Nauvoo, the march of the "Mormon" Battalion, and pioneer days in Utah. MILK AND CONSUMPTION.

The opinion stoutly maintained by the Veterinary Editor of the Country Getleman that tuberculosis is not communicated from cattle to man as gen-erally supposed, is supported, in part at least, by that excellent authority, the New York Medical Journal, which

J. O. Cobb has collected statistics to show that tuberculosis is as prevalent in countries where cow's milk is not used as it is in those where it is a prominent article of food. In the island of Guernsey the cattle are free from tuberculosis, yet the human has habitants are afflicted with the disease. In Iceland it is prevalent, yet the cattle are said to be non-tuberculous. In Alaska milk is not used yet the Indians are affected by tuberculosis, The same is found to be the case with the Chinese, the Japanese, the Hindu whose religion prohibits the use of meat and milk, and in the Philippines. In none of these countries are cattle kept for the use of meat or milk for food. The author inclines to the opinion that it is a disease of filth and poverty. Tub-erculosis among cattle as well as among the human race is a disease of contact.

Utah and Idaho Editors Sharpen Up Their Little Pencils And Wade In.

DUBOIS - KEARNS ON TOAST.

What the Press of Two States Has To Say Regarding Bolters and Trouble Breeders,

The press of Utah and Idaho continues to devote considerable space to the antics of Dubols and the American Partyites generally, as the following additional installment of clippings in-Provo Daily Enquirer: Just as has been expected the Tribune pretends that Tom Kearns is not, and never has been, a party to the "new move." The Enquirer predicted that Tom, himself, or his paper would at a convenient time make such a representation. The reception the bolting movement has met with is not very encouraging to the schemers; in fact, the affair is flattening out. Tom was to keep in the background until it could be proven that the movement was either a success or a failure; in the event of success Tom was to show himself and be welcomed with "loud acclaim" as the prime mover, but in the event of failure he was to be represented as being in no wise responsible for the movement. That was the reason Tom found it convenient to leave town whenever the bolters held a meeting. As we have said, the movement is flattening out and Tom knows it. The Tribune now finds it opportune to try and save Tom's reputation, editorially, says:

"The statement of the Smoot committee about 'the new party attempt ed to be organized by the senior sena-tor is a malicious falsehood in its direct allegation and in all its inferences. The senior senator has not at tempted to organize any party; he was not even at the meeting when it was organized, nor has he in any way taken part in the proceedings."

It will be remembered that at the bolters' first meeting, when the doubtful ones present, evidently noticing that Senator from was not in the crowd, enquired from Tom's political manager, and, also, his business partner, if the movement was projected in good faith and if Senator Tem was to be depended on, the answer was given "Of course, we answer for Senator Kearns; he is heart and soul with this movement," or words to that effect. Evidently. Tom means to desert the craft now that it is sinking.

Pocatello Advance: -- It is not surprising after all to see the Salt Lake Tribune come to the defense of Senator Dubois for participating in the Amercan movement in Utah. It is the perfeetly natural thing to do, for there is nothing that the Tribune would cy in that or any other state and it knows very well that with the American movement under way in that state that the Democrats there are bound to win unless Democrats leave their ticket and support the American move-ment. The presence of Dubois there was for the very purpose of encouraging Democrats to bolt their own ticket and give their support to the American movement headed by Republicans. In this both he and the Tribune are both likely to be disappointed, for the Tribune itself is forced to admit there are no grounds for claiming that there was any undue "church influence" in the nomination of the Democratic ticket, On the contrary the Tribune does not influence hence there is no reason why every Democrat in that state should not support the ticket. There was no bossism or domination of any character and good and competent men have received the nominations and unless the effort of Senator Dubois of this state shall have been effective in in-ducing the Democrats in Utah to bolt their ticket, it will probably be elected.

Couer d'Alene (Ida.) Sun:-Heitfeld proclaims the people of the Panhandle will support Dubois' anti-"Mormon" A. P. A. scheme. The ex-senator, to use the phrase of the lamented Sullivan, s talking through his hat to frighten timid voters in the south. The north cannot be imposed upon by political Pocatello Advance:-The Hon. Fred Dubois of Idaho has tried every political party known to the political industries of the United States, save perhaps the prohibition, and now that he has given his allegiance to the great ew-born American K. K. party of Salt Lake, it is hoped in the event it should succumb to the inevitable that some other new one may be created so that that shifty senator with his barnacle nclination may not be denied an anchorage. The old saw that everything comes to those who wait is verified in the wily senator of Idaho, who is cerainly entitled to the credit of being a Johnny on the Spot.

Paris (Idaho) Post-At the Republican state convention the two Utah senators were lined up against each other, Tom Kearns and Reed Smoot, The Smoot ticket with John C. Cutler for governor won out, and now Kearns sulks in his tent, repudiates the state ticket and threatens to revive the old Libers! party. His organ the Tribune, has come out denouncing Senator Smoot in very bitter terms. We consider that under the circumstances Senator Kearns is neither a statesman politician or a wise man, he is simply digging his political grave, as no party can ever have confidence in him hereafter; besides he proves himself to be a man of very small caliber in taking his present course.

Montpeller (Idaho) Examiner-The unfortunate condition of the Idaho Democracy is that a majority of its members are in rebellion because of a usurpation of power by certain political acrobats, and the campaign in this state will not be upon issues of party doctrine, but will be throughout the state a joining of hands by Republicans and old-time Democrats to defeat the purposes of Dubois and his hench men. On our part, this will be a cam-paign in which we will oppose, in the interest of all people, Democrats and Republicans alike, the policy of rank prejudice, the ultimate object of which if attained, would affect the vital poll-tical interests of 40,000 inhabitants of this state who are worthy and respect-ed citizens, except in the eyes of the shall therefore oppose Dubolsism, Heit-feldism, Si Donnelly and Flennerism and we expect thereby to do our small part to assist the Democratic party to DOMESTIC FLOUR
